Dear Mr. Whyrick:

This is our response to your letter dated November 2, 2010.

1) We have used our best efforts to obtain required contributor information. We have given a "Receipt Template" and general rules for campaign contributions to all campaign volunteers who may accept contributions. They are instructed to fill in as much information as possible.

Secondly, we send out a letter asking for missing information. We have attached several samples of the letters we send out.

Finally, we plan to file an amended Schedule A listing updated information when we file the next quarterly FEC Form 3.

- 2) We have completed the address and purpose fields for itemized disbursements.
- 3) We have expanded our description for professional fees.
- 4) The disbursements to credit card companies were for credit card interest or fees. We have separately reported all expenses charged on the various credit cards.
- 5) We have expanded our reporting of reimbursements to individuals to include original vendor.
- 6) We have expanded our reporting of credit card advances and unreimbursed charges at the end of the reporting period.

Enclosed is our amended FEC Form 3.

Sincerely,

Phil K. Uyehara, Treasurer
